This is a great cable and a clear class-leader - well done QED

For

- Biwire

Against

- Nothing

📅 Reviewed on 13th September 2003

Take an award-winning speaker cable, double up on the conductors to make it biwire, and the result is this version of QED's Silver Anniversary XT. Does it sound good? You bet!

Transparency is exceptional for the money, though the presentation is just a little on the lean side. It's still a worthy five-star product, though.
